Families Are Important
This workshop is designed for families who have concerns about their child's development and would like to learn more about the early intervention process.

Getting and Keeping the First Job Both parents and students will learn an overview of the realities of employment for youth. Topics include career planning, the role of families, and suggestions to increase the likelihood of being hired for a job.

IEP Clinics
Nevada PEP offers Individualized Education Program (IEP) Clinics. This workshop includes a brief overview of the IEP process and a question and answer session. Please bring your child's IEP so you can review it during the class.

Is Your Child a Target of Bullying?
Many students miss school because of bullying. Bullies tend to target children who are considered “different”. This workshop offers intervention strategies to help families cope with and prevent bullying.

Navigating Through Transition Both parents and students will learn an overview of the transition requirements in the IEP, including strategies they can use for effective transition planning as the students move toward college, employment, and living independently.

Skills for Effective Parent Advocacy Learn six important skills you can use to become a more effective advocate for your child with a disability.
Communication techniques will help you feel more confident advocating for your child.

Positive Behavior Approaches for Parents This workshop will provide an overview of Positive Behavior Interventions and an understanding of the environments in which challenging behaviors occur. Learn about evidence-based practices that support preschoolers to be successful and develop social skills.

Positive Behavioral Interventions Join us as we introduce the skills to identify and address behaviors that parents and professionals find challenging.
This workshop will provide an overview of functional assessments and positive interventions. Information will cover how to prevent and understand the behaviors of children and how they may affect the ability to be successful at home, school, and in the community.

Understanding ADHD
Parents and teachers of children who have Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) face different challenges when helping children achieve appropriate behaviors. When a child has ADHD, traditional approaches to teaching appropriate behavior may not work well. Learn some strategies that can help a child become successful in home, community, and school environments.

Working for Change - Using the Power of a Personal Story
Do you know how your personal story can influence and impact decision makers in your community? Using your personal story to educate and advocate can make such a difference when systems or services are going to be changed or eliminated. Don’t miss this training full of strategies to identify the people who make decisions that affect individuals with disabilities. Learn how to deliver your personal story that catches the attention and motivates others to action!

You Can Do It!
This will help high school students with disabilities prepare for a successful transition into college. Participants will recieve their very own “You Can Do It!” guide, which provides strategies and ideas that will help parents and students develop a plan to attend college.
