Families Are Important
Partners who have concerns about their child’s development often feel overwhelmed and unsure where to turn. This informative workshop is for families of children under the age of five who are interested in learning more about early intervention or school services that will help their child’s development.

Getting and Keeping the First Job
Both parents and students will learn an overview of the realities of employment for youth. Topics include career planning, the role of families, and suggestions to increase the likelihood of being hired for a job.

How is My Child Reading?
This workshop focuses on helping participants understand the terms that are used when discussing reading and writing. Don’t miss this workshop full of valuable information on how students learn to read and write and how to address literacy concerns in a student’s IEP.

IEP Clinics
Parents are key members of their child’s IEP team. This workshop includes an in-depth look at the Individualized Education Program (IEP), including how to use evaluations to write measurable goals, as well as strategies to help parents become more active participants in their child’s IEP meetings.

Is Your Child a Target of Bullying?
Many students miss school because of bullying. Bullies tend to target children who are considered “different”. This workshop offers intervention strategies to help families cope with and prevent bullying.

Journey to Adulthood
Parents will receive valuable information to help their child with a disability understand the physical, emotional, and social changes of puberty and adolescence. Learn with other families through open discussions and by sharing strategies about how to support youth as they mature and transition into adulthood.

Navigating Through Transition
Both parents and students will learn an overview of the transition requirements in the IEP, including strategies they can use for effective transition planning as the students move toward college, employment, and living independently.

Working for Change - Using the Power of a Personal Story
Do you know how your personal story can influence and impact decision makers in your community? Using your personal story to educate and advocate can make such a difference when systems or services are going to be changed or eliminated. Don’t miss this training full of strategies to identify the people who make decisions that affect individuals with disabilities. Learn how to deliver your personal story that catches the attention and motivates others to action!

You Can Do It!
This will help high school students with disabilities prepare for a successful transition into college. Participants will review their own “You Can Do It” guide, which provides strategies and ideas that will help parents and students develop a plan to attend college.

Workshop Descriptions:

Positive Behavior Approaches for Parents
The focus of this valuable training is to help participants understand and prevent troubling behaviors in children. Come and learn about positive interventions and how a good functional behavior assessment can be the basis for a behavior plan that supports children at school, home and in the community.

Skills for Effective Parent Advocacy
Learn six important skills you can use to become a more effective advocate for your child with a disability. Communication techniques will help you feel more confident advocating for your child.

Understanding ADHD
The challenging behaviors of children with Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) leave many parents and teachers feeling frustrated and ineffective. This training is full of strategies that can help children with ADHD develop new skills and positive behaviors.

Destrezas Para una Abogacía Eficaz de Parte de los Padres
Aprenda seis habilidades importantes que usted puede utilizar para convertirse en un defensor más efectivo para su hijo con una discapacidad. Las técnicas de comunicación le ayudarán a sentirse más confiado abogar por su hijo.

Entendiendo ADHD
Padres y maestros de los niños que tienen Trastorno por Déficit de Atención e Hiperactividad (TDAH) se enfrentan a retos diferentes al ayudar a los niños a lograr conductas adecuadas. Aprenda algunas estrategias que pueden ayudar al niño/a a tener éxito en el hogar, la comunidad y el entorno escolar.

Entrenamiento del IEP
Nevada PEP ofrece un entrenamiento acerca del programa de educación individualizado (IEP por sus siglas en inglés). Esta clase incluye una breve explicación acerca del IEP y una serie de preguntas y respuestas. Por favor traiga el IEP de su hijo/a para que pueda revisarlo durante la clase!

¿Es Su Hijo Un Blanco de Bullying?
Muchos estudiantes faltan a la escuela a causa de la intimidación. Acosadores tienden a centrarse en los niños que se consideran “diferentes”. Este taller ofrece estrategias de intervención para ayudar a las familias a enfrentar y prevenir el acoso escolar.

Intervenciones Positivas de Comportamiento
El enfoque de este entrenamiento calzado es para prevenir y entender los comportamientos de los niños y cómo afectan a su capacidad para tener éxito. Venga y aprenda acerca de intervenciones positivas y cómo las evaluaciones de conducta funcional pueden conducir al desarrollo de un plan de comportamiento que apoya a los niños en casa y en la comunidad.
