Introduction IEP's - Virtual Style

Thursday, September 3 3:00pm - 4:00pm
Wednesday, September 23 1:00pm - 2:00pm
Thursday, October 15 12:00pm - 1:00pm

As schools move to either online or phone IEP meetings, virtual meetings might look different than the traditional meeting at the school. Requirements for IEP development, review, evaluations and eligibility are still in place and parents are key members of their child's IEP team. Join us as we discuss the meeting (IEP) process, including how parents can feel more comfortable participating and providing information so the team can create a IEP that is individualized and helps a child make progress in school.

Transition Planning: Navigating Your Future

Wednesday, September 9 10:00am - 11:00am
Parents and students will learn about transition requirements in the IEP, including strategies they can use for effective transition planning as the student moves towards college, employment, and living independently.

How is My Child Reading?

Friday, September 11 2:00pm - 3:00pm
Learning the building blocks of literacy will answer this question. Parents will learn terms to help them be more comfortable discussing reading progress and scores with schools.

Help Your Child Focus on Learning

Tuesday, September 15 3:00pm - 4:00pm
Do you find that homework and other tasks can be challenging for your child to complete? Learn about difficulties children have with focusing on a task, different learning styles, and strategies that can help you help your child focus on learning.

Making the Most Out of Your Baby's Early Intervention Services

Friday, September 18 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Parents who have concerns about their child's development often feel overwhelmed and unsure where to turn. Early intervention services can help your infant or toddler with a disability learn, grow and meet milestones. This workshop is for families of children under the age of three who want to learn more about the free services that are available to enhance their baby's development.
