

Bullying: What do I need to know?

Review District's Behavior Guidelines:

- ★ All behavior guidelines, expectations, and consequences as well are outlined in the "Behavior Guidelines for Secondary Students" and "Behaving Positively at School-Elementary School." Both documents also include the full text from all Nevada Revised Statutes relative to bullying and cyberbullying.
- ★ Nevada's bullying laws do NOT apply to children in pre-kindergarten or to incidents that occur from one adult to another in a school setting.

Timeline:

- ★ All school employees must report possible incidents of bullying to the principal on the same day.
- ★ The school must immediately make sure that all students involved are safe. If the principal or designee does not have access to the reported victim, the principal or designee may wait until the next school day when he or she has access to the student.
- ★ Parents of students directly involved in the reported incident must be notified that an investigation will be conducted. If the bullying is reported before the end of school hours on a school day, notice must be given before the school's administrative office closes on that same day. If the bullying is reported on a day that is not a school day, or after school hours on a school day, the notice must be given on the next school day.
- ★ The principal or designee must start the investigation immediately.
- ★ The investigation must be completed within two school days (three school days if there was an extenuating circumstance, provided a good faith effort was made).
- ★ The principal or designee must meet with each reported target of bullying/cyberbullying and reported aggressor, regardless of the outcome of the investigation, no later than 10 school days after receiving the report of the allegation.
