Introduction IEP's - Virtual Style

Wednesday, January 5 5:00pm - 6:00pm
Tuesday, February 1 10:00am - 11:00am
As schools move to either online or phone IEP meetings, virtual meetings might look different than the traditional meeting at the school. Requirements for IEP development, review, evaluations and eligibility are still in place and parents are key members of their child's IEP team. Join us as we discuss the meeting (IEP) process, including how parents can feel more comfortable participating and providing information so the team can create a IEP that is individualized and helps a child make progress in school.

Help Your Child Focus on Learning

Friday, January 7 11:00am - 12:00pm
Wednesday, January 19 3:00pm - 4:00pm
Do you find that homework and other tasks can be challenging for your child to complete? Learn about difficulties children have with focusing on a task, different learning styles, and strategies that can help you help your child focus on learning.

Bullies, Targets, and Bystanders: Responses that Work

Tuesday, January 11 4:00pm - 5:00pm
Tuesday, February 22 3:30pm - 4:30pm
While bullying doesn't always leave bruises or broken bones, it can leave deep emotional scars that last a lifetime. Bullying is a serious issue that occurs throughout our schools everyday and, without intervention, bullying can lead to serious academic, social, emotional and legal problems. Don't miss this class full of responses to bullying that really work.

Special Education in a Pandemic

Wednesday, January 12 1:00pm - 2:00pm
Do you want to know the rights you have for your child under IDEA? Learn in-formal and formal ways to resolve disagreements related to your child's special education.

Transition Planning: Navigating Your Future

Thursday, January 13 3:30pm - 4:30pm
Parents and students will learn about transition requirements in the IEP, including strategies they can use for effective transition planning as the student moves towards college, employment, and living independently.

How is My Child Reading?

Friday, January 28 3:00pm - 4:00pm
Learning the building blocks of literacy will answer this question. Parents will learn terms to help them be more comfortable discussing reading progress and scores with schools.

Restorative Practices in School: What Parents Need to Know

Wednesday, February 9 3:30pm - 4:30pm
Changes are coming to Nevada on how your child's school will respond when children break the rules. In the past, progressive discipline was used, and children often were suspended. Nevada has passed laws in 2019 and in 2021, children will be given an opportunity to learn how their behavior affects others, accept responsibility, and take steps toward making things right. Join us as we learn about this shift to build relationships that will keep children in school and support student learning.

Making the Most Out of Your Baby's Early Intervention Services

Thursday, February 10 1:00pm - 2:00pm
Parents who have concerns about their child's development often feel overwhelmed and unsure where to turn. Early intervention services can help your infant or toddler with a disability learn, grow and meet milestones. This workshop is for families of children under the age of three who want to learn more about the free services that are available to enhance their baby's development.

Understanding Section 504 - A Civil Rights Law

Tuesday, February 15 4:00pm - 5:00pm
This workshop is designed to provide an understanding of The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 Section 504. Their purpose is to ensure that a child who has a disability identified under the law and is attending an elementary or secondary educational institution receives accommodations that will ensure their academic success and access to the learning environment.

Getting the First Job
